The Commissioner
In The West

It will be seen by the telegraphed summaries of the Commissioner's welcome campaign, up to Monday night, that God has set His seal upon the meetings in a very blessed manner, and that our new Leader has received a most encouraging reception at the hands of his troops in the West. This is what was expected, and we can promise our new Leader the same in whatever part of the Territory he may travel. His long years of successful service and his recognized abilities have won for him a deservedly high place amongst Salvation Army leaders, and the Canadian forces have earnestly desired to see a sample of himself and Mrs. Richards ever since The General informed this country that he had appointed Commissioner Richards to this command.

At the Territorial Headquarters arrangements are being made, as will be seen by the notices elsewhere, to give Commissioner Richards a warm reception that shall be in accordance with the importance of the position they occupy, and the esteem in which they are held.

It will be observed by the reports that the Commissioner has made a most favourable impression; that his public gifts were exercised with great success, and, as a result, at Vancouver, sixty-five seekers after Salvation and Sanctification were recorded. Hallelujah!

Let every reader pray for our new Commissioner. Upon him will rest enormous responsibilities, and we are sure that his first request of the Canadian forces would be for their prayers. Before him are spread vast opportunities. Canada, as a nation, is developing at a tremendous rate, upon the head of the Canadian wing of The Salvation Army devolves, of a great measure, the opportunity and responsibility of keeping The Salvation Army abreast of these things. In the name of Christ, he calls for our prayers and service. Commissioner and Mrs. Richards may feel confident they have them.

Enthusiastic Welcome Meetings

UNPRECEDENTED CROWDS

COMMISSIONER "SWALLOWED WHOLESALÉ"

SIXTY-FIVE SEEKERS AT VANCOUVER.

THE MAKURA docked at Vancouver wharf on Friday morning during a torrential downpour, which made anything like a public reception to Commissioner and Mrs. Richards an impossibility.

The Chief Secretary and Mrs. Gaskin, Brigadier and Mrs. Green, and others met the Commissioner and Mrs. Richards on board and conveyed to them the greetings of the Canadian Command.

In a chat with the Chief Secretary the Commissioner told him that the voyage had, on the whole, been enjoyable, and free from unpleasant incidents. The health of himself and Mrs. Richards was quite satisfactory, and that he felt in capital form to take up this important command. He was very grateful to God and The General for appointing him to such a field of useful work. The farewell from New Zealand was a demonstration of affection and appreciation of work done during their two years' of command that he will never forget.

Brigadier Green, the Divisional Commander, informs us that the Commissioner was most enthusiastically received by the comrades and friends of Vancouver—"swallowed wholesale" was the Brigadier's phrase—and his utterances have created an extremely good impression. Thousands lined the principal streets on Saturday evening to get a glimpse of Canada's new Leaders, as the great procession swept by, and the Citadel was packed for the meeting, which was of a most impressive description, and the audiences in this, as in the succeeding meetings, were powerfully wrought upon by the words of the Commissioner.

A splendid Holiass meeting was conducted in the Citadel on Sunday morning, while the afternoon and evening services were held in the spacious Imperial Theatre, which was filled on both occasions.

In the afternoon meeting, Mayor Baxter and C. E. Tiedall, M.P.P. for Vancouver, spoke in glowing terms of The Army's Work, and the Commissioner's oratory swayed the crowds at will. The great audiences laughed and cried by turns, and marked conviction was manifested.

Mrs. Richards spoke beautifully at each meeting. The crowds were unprecedented. Brigadier Green stated that with respect to the skillful handling of the meetings, too much cannot be said. There were sixty-five seekers for the week-end's campaign.

The Commissioner was delighted with the demonstration of The Salvation Army on the Pacific Coast. With respect to the meeting at Calgary on Monday evening, Major Hay says:

"Calgary enthusiastically greeted Commissioner and Mrs. Richards. The Citadel was packed, and Mayor Stinson, who presided, was very felicitous in his welcome to The Army's new Leader. As the Divisional Commander, it fell upon myself to read an address expressive of the welcome the Officers and Soldiers of the Alberta Division extended to our new Leaders. The Hon. W. H. Cushing moved a vote of thanks to the chairman and eulogized the work of The Army. Bandmaster Creighton seconded the same.

C. E. Tiedall, M.P.P.

The Commissioner's marvellous powers of delivery held and delighted the vast audience for an hour. Everyone who heard him decided that Commissioner Richards is well qualified to be Canada's Leader. Faith runs high for the future.

NOTES AND REFLECTIONS

By The General

I WANT to utter a word of warning. Many precious things are being destroyed in this hateful war. Already being irrevocably ruined. It is not very easy to foresee as yet how wide-spread and far-reaching that destruction will be. To begin with, what a loss there is in treasure, in money, in wealth of every kind. Nobody knows how much the war is costing the nations. Probably the cost never will be known. And yet, alas, money is so sadly needed for all that belongs to the helping and blessing of the people! What loss there is in the matter of time! How dreadful for millions of men in the prime of life to be spending days and weeks and months in the one sole business of destruction when every hour might have been spent in serving and blessing their fellows.

What ruin of genius and waste of energy and other human powers is being done! The great geniuses and powers which could have been of such incalculable worth to mankind if only they had been spent in the true service of the world—in beautifying it, in teaching it, in lifting it up instead of trampling it down. What destruction is going on in the cutting short of unparelleled capacities in those who perish in the musicians, the painters, the sculptors, the authors, the explorers, the teachers of mankind, whose gifts are lost before they have been discovered. What ruin and loss to the world in the destruction of more material things; ancient buildings, beautiful works of love and genius, stately, as well as simple, homes which can never be replaced, towns and villages which have been slowly growing up for a thousand years—now blotted out and gone!

And greater than all this, what a loss there is in human life. Who shall measure it? Who shall comprehend the awful greatness of that loss? Not only the lives of soldiers and sailors and fighting men generally, but lives of men, women, and children among every class in the communities concerned. Whenever we look, despair is trampling down his thousands and thousands his tens—nay, hundreds—of thousands!

Now, all this is dreadful—perhaps, so dreadful as to be, thank God, beyond our present powers of comprehension! We cannot take it all in. Heart and mind alike are numbed in the presence of such stupendous calamities. For myself, I can only say that as these days of anxiety and bloodshed drag their weary length along, I feel sometimes as if my heart would break. And yet, much as I know, I am only too well aware that I do not know half! I can only cry out that soon, very soon, the great God will surely visit us in His mercy as well as in His wrath.

And yet, over it all, there hangs a still more appalling apprehension, the fear of another danger which clings to me night and day. The spirit of war, at any rate of this war, seems to demand not only that the terrible sacrifices have just named should be offered on its bloody altars, but that even more precious and gracious things than these should be demanded of us, I mean that it will do its utmost to kill our sympathy with suffering. It will try, no matter what nation we may be of, to destroy our pity for the wrong-doer, in what seems to us to be his blindness and wickedness. It will try to close up the fountains of our compassion for those who injure us, and to silence our prayers to God for those who despoilously use us or our people. The spirit of war, I say, will strive even to put to death that most Christ-like thing in our whole lives—our love for our enemies.

I am very anxious about this. If the war involves such a calamity, that will be the worst of all for the Kingdom of God. And, alas! so much around tends to favour the growth of this most evil fruit of what is going on. The newspaper stories of cruelty and deception in every country, and which are seldom quite true, and the repetition of incidents which belong to the most horrible side of all war, whether true or false, and I fear also very much of the everyday talk of multitudes of the people, all tend to increase this danger. And the Father of Hatred is ever ready to promise and foster anything that will help the evil.

Now, I say, we must refuse to sacrifice these gracious things. We cannot, we must not, give them up! We must not hide them or bury them. We must not be ashamed of them. In the Name of the great God of Love, we must refuse the awful demands which are being made by the god of war to yield to the rage and the hate and the lust of revenge which are only too awfully manifold around us. We must, by the help of God, keep our tender sympathy with suffering, for it is the sympathy of Christ. We must cherish and encourage in our own hearts pity for the wrong-doers because it is the pity of Christ. We must let our compassion flow out towards, and our prayers ascend for, those who oppose and injure us, because that is of the very spirit and of the very command of Jesus Christ. And, above all, we must go on loving our enemies, because to love is of God, and without love towards them it is impossible to know Him, or to please Him, or to be His.

Remember the unchangeable law which Jesus laid down for us—He would that men should love to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if we do not love, we cannot know Him, and if we do not know Him, we cannot love Him, and if we do not love Him, we cannot be His. (Concluded on Page 11.)

Massey Hall Meeting

COMM. & Mrs. RICHARDS
TO RECEIVE A DEMONSTRATION OF TORONTO'S
W. OF WELCOME.

Premier and Mayor to Speak

MUSICAL COMBINATIONS TO RENDER MUSICAL
GREETINGS.

The welcome meeting to our new Leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Richards, promises to be one of great human interest, Salvation Army significance, and spiritual power.

It will be very representative in character. To begin with, there will be kind messages of greeting from His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, the Governor-General; from the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of the Dominion, and from Sir Wilfrid Laurier. These will represent Canada in its federal aspects. There will be speeches by the Hon. N. H. Beatty, Premier of Ontario, representing the Province; His Worship, Mayor Hocken, representing the City of Toronto, and by Warden Gilmour, of the Central Prison, representing work of social service rendered to the community by The Army. The various churches will be represented.

The worldwide Army will be represented in a message from The General, and the Territory at large will voice its feelings in messages from the Divisional Commanders. It will be a truly representative gathering, as will be met, seeing that the Chief Officer of such a useful and far-reaching Organization as The Salvation Army is to be welcomed.

Commissioner and Mrs. Richards will also be welcomed with harmonious notes. The Massed Bands, the voluminous harmony that the 300 Toronto Bandmen can render with all who have heard it, is a pleasant memory. We understand that the opening song will be that well-known, mighty Salvation Army battle hymn, "Rule, Jehovah," to the words of the hymn, "The Massed Bands will lead."

But there will be contrasts in music, for in this meeting the newly-formed staff of the welcome appearance. They are down, we observe, for a vocal selection, and Major Arnold is drilling them relentlessly in voice production, which is why the department is labouring diligently at their uniforms, so we shall no doubt enjoy a combination that will gladden the ears and please the ear, and stir the soul.

Then there is a woman's chorus of one hundred and fifty voices. They will sing the stirring welcome hymn to the truly noble tune, "O Canada." A children's chorus will also extend a vocal welcome.

The service will not be lacking in the spectacular, for a highly picturesque procession representing the nationalities, the localities, and classes amongst whom The Army labours will march through the hall, and sing a greeting.

Then, in addition to all the foregoing, will be the welcome address of our new Leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Richards, and friends rally to the Massey Hall on Thursday, Dec. 3rd, and give to Commissioner and Mrs. Richards the warmest reception they have ever had.

STORMING ENEMY'S TRENCHES

Surprising Victories and many Captures

New Offensive Tactics are Begun

TWO MONTHS' CAMPAIGN.

Special Effort Being Put Forth by Oshawa, Ont., Comrades.

Taking advantage of "Go-to-Church Sunday," we launched a special two-months' campaign on Sunday, Nov. 18th. Lieut.-Colonel Bond of the "War Cry" Editor, was with us for the first Sunday, and gave a very interesting lecture on "The Romance of Soul-Saving." The Colonel also visited Whiffy Prison Farm, in company with several of the comrades. A Soldiers' Roll Call meeting, which was well attended, was held on Monday, and on Thursday night the Rev. Yule, of the Presbyterian Church, conducted a revival meeting. Mr. Watt, of the Athol Street Mission, conducted an outdoor revival meeting on the Saturday night, and two drunkards claimed victory.

Despite the rain we had good meetings on Sunday, Nov. 15th, and five souls surrendered, while on Monday, at the Lord's Feast, we had three more surrenders. Tuesday's meeting (17th) was conducted at the home of Sister Elford, and was led by Lemmy Coull. We are in for great times.

AWAKENED.

Numerous Surrenders at Nanaimo.

We have been having surprising victories during the last few days. A number of the soldiers who have been in the background for some time, have been wonderfully awakened, and are again on the firing line. One comrade who has been a backslider for fifteen years, has shaken his stand, and now boldly testifies in the open-air, in the very streets where he used to mix with worldly companions.

On Saturday, Nov. 14th, a tall man, a regular giant, who had been a slave to drink, surrendered, and is doing well. Sunday evening, we had victories, for in the afternoon a sister got saved and another who had been a backslider testified. Two young men surrendered on Sunday night.—T. S. W.

NAVAL MEN FAREWELL.

Several Souls Surrender at Chace Cove, Nfld.

We had three souls at the front on Sunday evening, Nov. 18th, two of them being Naval Reservists. A farewell meeting was held on Monday evening, Nov. 19th, for three of our naval comrades who have now left for the war. There was one surrender.—A. R. S.

QUEBEC, QUE.

There have been five surrenders—four sisters and a brother—this week. Will the comrades pray for our comrade? We want your prayers very much at present. The situation is leading on, and working hard, and we have been looking forward to the time when we may have a Band and a good programme.

MEETING OF ALLIES.

Five Enrollments at Portage la Prairie, Man.

The ten-days' siege at this Corps has been a great success, and in attendance and finances we have broken the year's record. On Friday, Nov. 13th, we held a special Allies' meeting, when the Rev. Mr. Platt (Methodist), the Rev. Mr. Smalley (Baptist), the Rev. Mr. Watt Smith, of Knox Church, gave special addresses. There was a large attendance. "John Bull and Party" was the name of the special Saturday evening meeting, at which more than thirty comrades appeared dressed to represent the diversity of Army Work. We had a march through the streets, and more than two hundred people stood round the open-air.

A memorial service for the King's victims was held on Sunday night, and on Monday (16th) we had a torchlight procession, followed by an enrollment of five recruits. We have welcomed Brother and Sister Spencer, from Amherst, N.S., and Sister Veach, from Neepawa, Man. Brother and Sister Spencer now play in our Band.—Jeff.

FIVE SURRENDERS.

Interesting Concert at Moose Jaw.

Sunday last was Band Sunday and the morning meeting was addressed by Bandmen W. Probert, I. Dee, and W. Mitchell, while Bandmen V. Vincent, A. Hill, and I. Vincent took the afternoon meeting. At night Bandmen V. Stokes, A. Brown, and I. Goodwin led, and the testimonies were straight and prompt. Mr. Alexander Hamilton took the Scripture lesson, and at the close, there were five surrenders. One of these was an old, nearly white-haired brother, sixty-five years of age, who, in testimony, told us that he had never served God before.—Mac.

CONCERTINA AND CORNET.

Major Hay Pays Visit to Red Deer, Alberta.

Major Hay, our new Divisional Commander, paid us a visit on Nov. 14th, when we had a good time. The indoor meeting was preceded by an open-air, at which the Major made an old, nearly white-haired brother, sixty-five years of age, who, in testimony, told us that he had never served God before.—Mac.

PORT WILLIAM, ONT.

Brigadier McLean was with us on Nov. 14th, and gave his lecture on the International Congress, illustrated by a number of lovely views. Captain Cox operated the lantern, and also charmed us with some of his own songs. Pictures of the English press disaster were shown. Captain and Mrs. Allen last week made up eight bundles of clothing for the poor.—E. T.

"QUIT YOU LIKE MEN."

Adjutant Trickey Addresses Owen Sound, Ont., Ambulance Men.

The Ladies' Aid held a very successful week-end recently, which included a musical programme on the Saturday evening. On Sunday last there were two surrenders. The Adjutant addressed the St. John's Ambulance men at night, taking for his text, "Quit you like men," in which he spoke with much power. Sisters Mrs. A. Pountney and Mrs. E. Fearwell were much affected at the departure of their husbands for the war, but the Soldiers are doing all that lies in their power to cheer and comfort them.

A SOUP-POT MEETING.

Rousing Times at St. John II., N.B.

We are having blessed times with our new Officers, Captain Forsyth and Captain McDonald. At the Holiness meeting on Friday, Nov. 13th, we had a speaker for Sanctification, and on Wednesday (17th) we held a "Pot of Soup Meeting," which was well attended. The Soup-pot was presided over by Captain McDonald, assisted by Lieutenant Edwards, and we also had with us Inverly Lane and Sister Cora Taylor. Varied and interesting were the bits of soup passed out to all who wished, and we are looking forward to rousing times this winter.—G. L.

ON MOUNTAIN-TOP.

Re-Opening of Roslag-B.C. by Captain Kerr.

Once again The Army Flag flies, and The Army drum beats, in the streets of Roslag-B.C. Captain Kerr, who has been transferred from the Social Work to the Field made an old, nearly white-haired brother, sixty-five years of age, who, in testimony, told us that he had never served God before.—Mac.

STELLARTON, N. S.

Major Barr conducted the week-end services at this Corps on Nov. 13th, and his visit was a source of great help and inspiration. The infant son of Captain and Mrs. Fry was dedicated on Sunday night. A number of the young men, now going Band was with us and assisted, on Monday, Nov. 16th.—Capt. Fry.

FOUR CRAVE MERCY.

Adjutant Howell Leads Good Meetings at Calgary I., Alta.

Adjutant Howell led the meetings on Sunday, November 18th, and had blessed times. His text in the morning meeting was "O ye of little faith," and he spoke of the excuses men give for neglecting Salvation. Four sought pardon at the close of the meeting.—F. B. I.

FAREWELL.

Captain Beth Long, Port Hope.

A farewell meeting was held for Captain Beth Long, who is leaving for the front on Sunday, Nov. 15th. The Captain has been with us for some time, and has been a great help to the comrades. He is a very good man, and we are all sorry to see him go. He is leaving for the front on Sunday, Nov. 15th. The Captain has been with us for some time, and has been a great help to the comrades. NOTES AND REFLECTIONS.

Our arrangements for helping the Belgians, so far as we have the means to do so, are working smoothly. Commissioner Casodany, to whom I have entrusted the direction of this work, is now in Belgium. He has received the cordial permission, both of the Belgian Government and of the German military authorities, to carry on Salvation Army relief measures. The money I have received for this effort is most welcome, and I hope to have still more placed at my disposal. In England, also, The Army is doing good work for the refugees, whose melancholy plight is surely one of the most distressing incidents war has ever produced in the history of the modern world.

I must thank many friends for the financial help they have sent me at this time for one or other of our various undertakings. In some degree, at least, the burden resting upon me has thus been relieved. Up to the present no word of mercy has been stopped, no door of help and hope has been closed, no Officer has been compelled to relinquish the service of our Flag, either at home or in distant lands. My sense of thankfulness for this is increased by the very kind assurances of sympathy and confidence which have accompanied my efforts—both from those in humble circumstances and from those to whom God has entrusted the means to aid us on a larger scale. These evidences of

GOD-SPEED—WELCOME.

Several Changes at Winnipeg II.

Sisters Hilda and Delcie Moss have farewell from this Corps—the former for the Old Country and the latter for Toronto. We wish God-speed to Lieutenant Blanchard who was welcomed into our midst to assist Ensign and Mrs. Mutarr, and Sister Butter recently arrived on Nov. 14th, and has joined this Corps. We are in for a good, soul-saving time.—A. G.

OVERFLOW ATTENDANCE.

Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Scott at Cedar Cottage (Vancouver.)

Brigadier Green, Lieut.-Colonel Scott, and the Vancouver Band visited this Corps on October 21st, and gave an interesting programme. Lieut.-Colonel Scott, who is an old Canadian Officer, and is now stationed at Seattle, Wash., was introduced by the Brigadier, and took the chair. Mrs. Colonel Scott read the 33rd Psalm in a very impressive manner. We had the largest attendance ever recorded at Cedar Cottage, the Hall was filled to overflowing. Finance was cleared up, and we closed on Sunday evening.—J. S. L.

WELCOMED!

Colonel Gaskin at Chatham, Ont.

We welcomed Brigadier Bridgman on Monday evening, November 2nd, when a crowded meeting was held. The Brigadier recognized many familiar faces among the audience. Everyone is looking forward to the visits which he promises to hold during the first Monday of each month. Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin were with us on Sunday, November 8th, and were accompanied by Brigadier Mrs. Bridgman. We had a rousing meeting. Mayor McCordie took the chair on Sunday afternoon, when the Colonel gave an interesting address on "The Holiness Movement." Brother and Sister Somers have farewell for the Old Country.—C.

SIX FOR HOLINESS.

New Methods Introduced at Orillia.

Our usual Saturday night Free-and-Easy was turned into a searching Holiness meeting, on Nov. 14th, and we had six conversions. Thirty and forty others stood hand in hand and pledged themselves to be more earnest for souls. Brother Sampson, a stable hand for the week, part in the afternoon meeting on Sunday, relating his wonderful conversion, and, in spite of inclement weather, we held our open-air. We have commenced a Thursday night open-air.—W. W.

ANOTHER CAPTURE.

Advances Taking Place at Sherbrooke, Que.

Sunday's meetings were well attended, in spite of the wet weather. Scarcely had the evening meeting commenced when a "brother," who had been a backslider for some time, surrendered, and afterwards testified how God had spoken to his heart. The Captain has commenced a "Sinner's" series of lectures, entitled "The Helping Hand Brigade." We in Sherbrooke are in for victory.

A GOOD PROGRAMME.

Children from North Toronto Home Visit Yorkville (Toronto).

Mrs. Ensign Keith and the children from our Davissville Ave. Home visited this Corps on Nov. 12th, and gave a good programme. Staff Captain Dobney took the chair. Very much credit is due to Mrs. Ensign Keith, Sister Eva Keen, and Sister Ditchell for the trouble they have taken in training the children. The audience was delighted with the programme.

WHAT THE SOLDIER EATS

As for the northern grains, barley, rye, and oats, which also contain some gluten, these are all inferior to wheat. Barley on account of their low protein content, and the considerable bulk of innutritious, gelatinous and gummy materials, which are difficult to digest; and oats on account of the presence of the silicles or fructives with which their high percentage of protein is combined. Nobody but a Scotchman can live on these grains, and it has taken generations of training to enable even him to do it.

The next foundation stone, for which the economists endeavoured, was the discovery of the value of good and far cheaper, was beef; and that noble standby holds its own like the Rock of Gibraltar. No other animal substance, whether fish, fowl, or other animal substance,

THE PROPERTY AND IMMIGRATION SECRETARY TALKS OF HIS TRIP TO ENGLAND.

"Yes, I visited Southend to do the week-end meetings, and took the opportunity of visiting Hadleigh Farm Colony. Here I saw quite a number of refugees, and about two hundred wounded Belgian soldiers."

About two centuries ago two new planets began into our human ken above the dietetic horizon—tea and coffee. It is doubtful whether any addition to the comfort of civilized man within the last two hundred years in the realm of dietetics can be mentioned that equals them. Certainly, if we took into consideration the third new article of food, which came in and still goes down with them—sugar—it would be impossible to match them with anything of equal value.

ARMY SONGS.

FROM EVERY STAIN MADE CLEAN.

Tunes.—For ever with the Lord, 68; Song Book, 430.

From every stain made clean,
From every sin set free;
O blessed Lord, this is the gift
That Thou hast promised me.
And pressing through the past
Of failure, fault, and fear,
Before Thy Cross my soul I cast,
And dare to leave it there.

From Thee I would not hide
My sin, because of fear
What men may think, I hate my pride,

And as I am appear—
Just as I am, O Lord,
Not what I'm thought to be;
Just as I am, a struggling soul,
For life and liberty.

HAVE YOU ROOM FOR JESUS?

Tunes.—Room for Jesus, 153; Never can tell, 146.

Have you any room for Jesus—
He who bore your load of sin?
As He knock, and asks admission,
Sinner, won't you let Him in?

Chorus.

Room for Jesus, King of Glory!
Hasten now, His word obey!
Swing your heart's door widely open!

Bid Him enter while you may.

Room for pleasure, room for business;

But for Christ the Crucified—
Not a place that He can enter.
In the heart for which He died!

Have you any time for Jesus,
As in grace He calls again?
Oh, "To-day" is "time accepted."
To-morrow you may call in vain.

Room and time now give to Jesus;
Soon will pass God's day of grace;
Soon your heart be cold and silent,
And your Saviour's pleading cease.

HARK, HARK, MY SOUL!

Hark, hark, my soul! what warlike songs are swelling.

Through all the land and on from door to door;

How grand the truths those burning strains are telling
Of that great war till sin shall be no more.

Chorus.

Salvation Army, Army of God;
Onward to conquer the world with Fire and Blood.

Onward we go, the world shall hear
our singing,
Come, guilty souls, for Jesus bids
you come;
And through the dark its echoes,
loudly ringing,
Shall lead the wretched, lost, and wandering home.

Far, far away, like thunder grandly
pealing,
We'll send the call for mercy full
and free;
And burdened souls by thousands humbly kneeling,
Shall bend, dear Lord, their rebel necks to Thee.

Conquerors at last, though the fight
be long and dreary,
Bright day shall dawn and sin's
dark night be past;
Our battles end in saving sinners
weary,
And Satan's kingdom down shall fall at last.

Orangeville, Ont.—Sunday, Nov.
15th, was a day of blessing at this Corps. Lieutenant Simco gave a very interesting talk at night. We have organized a Band of Love
Class.—I. J. J.

A FIELD DAY.

Dominion Alliance Representatives
Speak at Midland, Ont.

Sunday was Dominion Alliance
Field Day, we were visited by two representatives, the Rev. William Kettlewell and the Rev. Dr. Ross, who spoke with force on the temperance question, and referred to the Salvation Army as "the largest and best temperance society in the world." Finances were good.

Lieut.-Colonel Hargrave visited us on Oct. 20th, and gave a good address on the Young People's Work. There was a good and appreciative audience. Captain Elrick led the meetings on Sunday, Oct.
25th, and at the Young People's morning meeting a little girl surrendered.

METLAKARTLA, B. C.

We have a new Army Hall at this place, which, although not complet-ly finished, is fit for occupation. For many years there was no Hall, but last year, trusting in God for help, we started to build. We have not quite finished the inside work, but expect it will be done during the winter.—M. A.
